The CDRPA Seeks Input on the Feasibility of a Regional Sports Complex

The Chelan Douglas Regional Port Authority (CDRPA) is seeking public input on the needs of the community regarding the feasibility of a regional sports complex in the Greater Chelan and Douglas County area.

The CDRPA has retained the services of BerryDunn, a national parks, recreation and open space consulting firm to assist with the feasibility study. The study is in its first phase, which includes data gathering. This phase includes an inventory of existing facilities, collecting demographic data, performing a market analysis, and receiving input from the community. The first two opportunities for the community to provide input have been scheduled.

The events will be held at the Confluence Technology Center at 285 Technology Center Way, Ste 102, Wenatchee, WA 98801 on the following dates and times:

Wednesday, June 14th, 2023 - 6:30 pm to 7:30 pm
Thursday, June 15th, 2023 - 12:00 pm to 1:00 pm

Light refreshments will be provided.

Can't make it? An online survey is coming soon! Additional information can be found on the Regional Sports Complex Information website.

Any questions or inquiries on the Regional Sports Complex Feasibility Study can be directed to Stacie de Mestre, Director of Economic Development & Capital Projects at 509.884.4700 or stacie@cdrpa.org.

About the CDRPA: The Chelan Douglas Regional Port Authority is the first of its kind in Washington by functionally consolidating two county-wide port districts into one operating entity.
